2. Mr. [] and Mr. [] (Security) were taken to the Old Senate Office Building where they made a rather cursory inspection of the Senate Aeronautical and Space Sciences Committee's new hearing room. The extensive use of electronic loud speaker equipment will pose serious problems to them in making sweeps of this room. When workmen have vacated the room next week they will contact this office to make a "dry run" sweep. This is agreeable with the Committee staff.

3. Delivered to the Jackson Subcommittee on Policy Making Machinery the black and white charts for use in the study on Soviet policy machinery. Also picked up a confidential memorandum from Senator Jackson concerning the Soviet Embassy interest in the Communist China report.

4. In response to a call from a Mr. Litchy, NASA Security Office, to Mr. [] a call was made to Mr. Gleason, their legislative liaison officer. Gleason was advised that regarding Litchy's request we had no objection to one or two high level administrators sitting in on our briefing of the House Science and Astronautics Committee if it was all right with Chairman Brooks. Gleason said he doubted that NASA would ask for this.

5. Arranged with Jay Sourwine, Counsel for Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, for a preliminary meeting with Mr. [] for 10:30 a.m. Friday, January 15, to go over areas of testimony desired for the Subcommittee hearing next week. Also finalized the time of appearance of Mr. [] before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee for 10:30 a.m. Friday, January 22. Mr. [] SR Division, and Mr. [] FE Division, advised of the foregoing.
